

It doesn't add up.

You're almost 10 times more likely to crash if driving while angry, sad or agitated. Throwing in a phone call for extra distraction just doesn't add up.

Next time the phone rings while driving, ask yourself "Should I really take this call?"

---

SUMV
Safer Use of Mobiles in Vehicles